

The Evening Herald, Buffalo, New York
August 16, 1898, page 11

Courted by Mail

William Klein and Rose Weiss - Deaf Mutes, Married in Buffalo

Buffalo, August 16 - William Klein of Omaha, Neb, and Miss Rose Weiss, daughter of Herman Weiss of this city, were married last Sunday night. They are mutes and have been courting for only five or six months. About six months ago Mr. Klein made up his mind that he wanted to get married, and he told some of his friends of his desire. They knew Miss Weiss and managed to have the two begin corresponding. This was kept up and pictures exchanged. The arrangements for the wedding were made through the correspondence and last week the groom and his father arrived in Buffalo and met the bride for the first time. The arrangements were then completed for the ceremony.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. Mr. Cohen, who handed to the couple a card on which was written the marriage vows. When it came to placing on the ring, the words of the ceremony were spelled by the young people with their fingers as their respective turns came. Mr. and Mrs. Klein will live in Omaha, where he has a lucrative business.