

Omaha World Herald, Omaha, Nebraska, dated January 2, 1929

Woman Braves Oil Flames

Mrs. Abraham Romm, 101 South Fifty-fifth street, became her own fireman yesterday when she discovered the furnace in her home enveloped in flames. At the risk of being burned she ran to the basement and turned off the oil burner, which had overflowed and caused the blaze. Fireman arrived in time to prevent any damage except from smoke.

Omaha World Herald, Omaha, Nebraska, dated July 28, 1965

Obituary

Romm - Anna, wife of the late Dr. Abraham Romm, New Rochelle, N.Y., Tuesday, July 27. Survivors, 5 children, Gertrude, Arthur, Pauline, Elsie, and Ruth. 6 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren.

Services Thursday, 10 a.m. from the Burket Chapel. Interment Pleasant Hill Cemetery. San Francisco papers please copy.